Imagination Station partners with Lucas County Board of Developmental Disabilities for Science in Motion

TOLEDO, Ohio – Imagination Station and the Lucas County Board of Developmental Disabilities are hosting a special workshop series at Imagination Station designed to get your child moving and having fun. The science center welcomes children of all abilities for this supportive class that focuses on motor development and science exploration. Children ages 2 to 5 are welcome to participate in this engaging series.

Science in Motion is hosted at Imagination Station in Little KIDSPACE on Wednesday mornings at 10:15am and will last approximately one hour. The workshops will be held on July 13, 20, 27 and August 10, 17, 24 and 31. The series is included with admission however registration is required. After the workshop, we welcome guests to stay and play in Little KIDSPACE – a learning world designed to help kids kindergarten age and younger to learn and explore through play.

“This inclusive series is a great way for our guests of all abilities to come to the science center and explore science,” said Sloan Eberly Mann Director of STEM Education. “It’s important for kids to make discoveries so they can approach learning creatively.”

Imagination Station, Toledo’s Science Center, is a vital non-profit organization that is an integral part of Toledo’s economic, educational and social landscape. With hundreds of hands-on exhibits and demonstrations, Imagination Station delivers a multi-sensory experience that’s as fun as it is educational. Imagination Station provides a critical layer of science enrichment by serving as an educational partner for teachers, schools and parents. It’s with a thoughtful blend of exhibits, experiences, education and excitement that Imagination Station inspires visitors to pursue STEM careers in Northwest Ohio.

All activities are included in the cost of admission. For more information and to register your family, please call a Reservation Specialist at 419.244.2674 ext. 250 visit www.imaginationstationtoledo.org.
